Australian born Mickey Robertson is an Interior Designer by profession. Her career began in London almost 30 years ago and continued on her return to Australia with Scottish husband, Larry. In 1988 they purchased a collection of historic, dilapidated

Georgian farm buildings in country NSW and after a lot of hard work transformed Glenmore House and Garden into an amazing property. Larry and Mickey have two daughters. They open their Garden occasionally for special events and Mickey also runs kitchen gardening, seasonal cooking and craft workshops. In 2016, her book

'House and Garden at Glenmore' was published.
